2 – Certificate of authorisation		Office use only
Local government elections in England		Date received	Time received	Initials	No

To accompany the nomination of a candidate standing on behalf of a registered political party.
 (Note: candidates standing on behalf of two or more parties require a certificate from each party and each must allow the same registered joint description to be used).

This certificate must be issued by the registered Nominating Officer of the party or by a person authorised to sign on their behalf.

This certificate authorises the candidate to use a specific registered description or the name of the party as registered with the Electoral Commission, or to use 'any registered description or the party name as registered with the Electoral Commission'.

This authorised party name or description can then be included by the candidate on the nomination form. It is this which will appear as their description on the ballot paper. Party names and registered descriptions are listed on the Electoral Commission's website (<http://search.electoralcommission.org.uk>).

Details of candidate to be authorised and the allowed description/party name
Ward/division name:	Clearvale	Date of election:	**//*
The candidate (name in full):	Joseph Smith
